MASON & SAN SABA – Receipts totaled 5,366 head. The market started off really strong on Monday but as the week went on it softened up due to the heat and the fleshier new crop calves. The dried out weaned calves and yearlings are still in strong demand. The stocker steers and heifers ended the week on a steady tone after starting out Monday higher. The feeder steers and heifers started out high Monday and by Thursday they sold $3 to $5 lower with most being big new crop calves. The real fleshy new crop calves sold $5 to $7 lower this week. Packer cows and bulls sold steady along with pairs and bred cows.
