Jordan Cattle Auction September 25, 2021

SAN SABA, TX – Receipts totaled 1,989 head with buyers from Colorado, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana, and all across Texas including 630 on the internet. The better fleshier young pairs that were 3in1's or had early fall calves at side were in good demand selling from $1500 up to $2800. Solid mouth pairs and young pairs carrying less flesh and eye appeal brought $1000 up to $1475. The young fleshier bred cows were in very good demand going mostly from $1500 up to $2400 except for a set of Grey Brahms that sold for $2850. The solid mouth and younger cows with less flesh and some short bred cows ranged from $775 up to $1475. The bigger larger frame and fleshier bred heifers that were medium bred to long bred sold mostly from $1375 up to $2050 except for a tigerstipe and a brahman that brought $2400 and $2600. The open heifers that were in good flesh and had some size to them ranged mostly from $800 up to $1275 except for a group of Brahms that brought $1550 and 1 fancy F-1 tigerstripe that went for $1700. The next Replacement Female Sale will be the 8th Annual Hill Country Youth Heifer Sale on Thursday, October 21 in conjunction with the Regular Sale in San Saba, Tx followed by the Fall Best of the Best Sale on Saturday, October 30 at 10:00 am in San Saba, Tx.
