

Market Report

Jordan Cattle Auction September 24, 2022

SAN SABA, TX – Receipts totaled 3,178 head. Buyers were on hand from Mississippi, Oklahoma, and all across Texas along with 908 on the internet. Overall, the market was softer and quite a bit lower as compared to our August 27th female sale. The better younger fleshier pairs sold from $1500 up to $2000 except for 2 groups of first calf pairs of Brangus and Baldies that brought $2100 and $2700. Some of the solid mouth pairs and young pairs carrying less flesh went from $1125 up to $1450. The front end of the young fleshy bred cows were in pretty good demand selling from $1300 up to $1850 except for 1 set of 41 young long bred Angus cows that brought $2325. The solid mouth, short bred, and young cows carrying less flesh ranged from $800 to $1275. The better, bigger, fleshier medium to long bred heifers went mostly from $1200 up to $1775. The short bred heifers and medium to long bred heifers carrying less flesh brought $800 up to $1175. The bigger, longer aged open heifers mostly sold from $1100 up to $1550. The younger lighter weight open heifers went mostly from $860 up to $1075. The next Special Replacement Female sale will be the 9th Annual Hill Country Youth Heifer Sale on Wednesday October 19 at 11:00 am in San Saba, Texas followed by the Fall Best of the Best Sale on Saturday October 29th at 10:00 am in San Saba, Texas.
